To whom it may concern;

Riva has been our broker for over seven years now. We have always been very happy with her services. She is so friendly and is always willing to help us out with any of our insurance needs. She is very knowledgeable with what products are out there and offers us choices of what will work for us personally. She is always responsive and available to assist us or our employees at any time. She always lets us know when our renewal is coming up, so I don't have to think about it too much and she always follows through with everything that she does for us.

Riva is a great insurance broker and comes highly recommended by our company.

Sincerely,

Steve Pressnall
